

Legal Research Apps

Apps, short for applications, are software programs that can be downloaded to your smart phone or tablet. To search for apps for your device, visit the iTunes App Store for Apple/iOS devices, Google Play for Droid devices, Blackberry World for Blackberry devices, or the Windows App store for Windows devices. NOTE: Some apps are proprietary (e.g. iOS or Droid only) and will not be available to other devices. Prices, content, and availability are subject to change.

Below are just a few of the many types of legal apps in the market. For more information on other relevant mobile apps, visit UCLA's excellent and extensive guide: "Mobile Applications for Law Students and Lawyers".
